PBL TEAM REPORTS

Augusta Groove 2332 Rutherford Augusta, GA 30906 706-737-5550 ext 310 fax: 706-739-0219 Head coach: Rick Brown Home arena: Richmond Academy augustagroovebasketball.com	The Augusta Groove are one of ten new teams joining the Premier Basketball League for the 2008-09 season, and the first PBL franchise from the Peachtree State. The Groove welcomed the 2008 PBL champion Rochester Razorsharks to Richmond Academy, and in what most would consider a major upset, the expansion Groove blasted the Sharks with a 126-117 victory in front of 1,800 fans. Augusta's sharpshooter, AJ Millien, hit 33 points on 12-of-16 shooting and 9-of-12 scoring from the stripe. Demetrius Howard, Augusta's first-round draft pick, added 21 points; while Cory Sims' 19 points included a team-high 8 assists. Howard and Millien brought the crowd to standing cheers when, in the third quarter, Howard's alley-oop pass to Millien turned into a two-handed power slam.
Battle Creek Knights McCamy Place 50 Capital Ave. SW Battle Creek, MI 49017 Phone: (269) 965-5001 Fax: (269) 965-5004 Head coach: Terry Sare Home arena: Kellogg Arena bcknights.com	This will be the Knights' first season in the Premier Basketball League, as the team becomes one of three squads from the Automotive State to participate in the PBL's 2008-09 campaign. The Knights had the honor of playing the first regular season PBL game this year, as they hosted the Chicago Throwbacks at Kellogg Arena. Although the opening night score was tied at 49-49 at the half, the Knights pulled out a 120-113 victory in front of a sold-out audience. Free throws were the key - Battle Creek scored 15 of 18 from the line, while the Throwbacks only shot 6-of-16 from the line. Kenny Langhorne and Rashi Johnson each put up 19 points; Florentino Valencia had 16 points and 11 rebounds for an opening-game double-double. "A win is a nice way to start off in a new league, especially against a conference opponent," said Battle Creek coach Terry Sare to the Battle Creek Enquirer. "Every time (Chicago) shot free throws, this place went crazy and that's what we need. That's a home court advantage and I sure do thank the fans of Battle Creek because they were that sixth man tonight. I wish I could go up and shake every one of their hands right now."
Buffalo Stampede 3498 Sheridan Drive Amherst, NY 14226 Phone (716) 834-3498 Fax (716) 834-3544 Head coach: John Fitzpatrick Home arena: Koessler Athletic Ctr. buffalostampedepl.com	This will be the Stampede's first season in the Premier Basketball League, as the team becomes the second Empire State entry in the PBL lineup. However, their opening game at the Koessler Center against the Wilmington Sea Dawgs started out rough, as the Stampede could only muster two points - a Kyle Cuffe jumper - in the first quarter. Even with that slow start, the Stampede charged back, winning their home opener against Wilmington 98-95, thanks to 19 team-leading points from Lamar Castile. Nick Peroli's 13 points included a trio of baskets from behind the arc; Kyle Cuffe and Tyrone Rayson had six rebounds apiece.
Chicago Throwbacks 430 East 162nd Street, Suite 507 South Holland IL 60473 Office: (219) 588-3071 Fax: (219) 884-4558 Head coach: Donnie Boyce Home arena: Attack Athletics chicagothrowbacks.com	The Chicago Throwbacks begin their second year in the Premier Basketball League, and hope to improve on last season's 5-15 regular season record. First up for the Throwbacks was a two-game road trip, beginning Friday night against the Battle Creek Knights. Despite a slow start that saw the Throwbacks fall behind 11-4, Chicago caught up to the Knights and finished the half tied 49-49. But by the end of the third quarter, the Throwbacks ran out of gas, and lost to the Knights 120-113. Stanley Thomas led the Throwbacks with 26 points in the Chicago loss. Imari Sawyer scored 19 points, while Amir Major added 12 points for the Throwbacks. The Throwbacks rebounded with a trip to Detroit, where they were able to hold off the Panthers for a 110-106 victory. Stanley Thomas again stepped up for the team, with 24 points and nine rebounds to lead the Throwbacks to the win. Imari Sawyer added 19 points and a team-leading 8 assists; Sawyer also had two key steals.
Detroit Panthers 199 W Brown Street, Suite 110 Birmingham, MI 48009 Phone (248) 645-2278 Fax (248) 920-0482 Head coach: C. Bill Jones Home arena: Wiley Groves HS detroitpanthers.com	The Detroit Panthers are one of three new squads from the Wolverine State to participate in the PBL this season. In their home opener against the Mid-Michigan Destroyers, both teams battled closely and with seconds remaining, the Panthers were down 109-107. Willie Mitchell, the Panthers' first-round draft pick, got the ball and shot a three-quarter-court long-distance heave toward the basket. The ball went through for the PBL's first "four point" basket for a completed hoop from beyond half-court. Mitchell was mobbed by his teammates in celebration, as the Panthers sealed a 111-109 win. Brian Woodland's 27 points led the Panthers in scoring; Woodland and David Myers pulled down seven team-leading rebounds apiece. That momentum, however, was not enough to stop the incoming Chicago Throwbacks, who beat the Panthers 110-106 Sunday night. Corey Gupton led the way for the Panthers with 22 points, while Stane's Bufford had nine team-leading rebounds.

Halifax Rainmen 1888 Brunswick Street, Suite 611 Halifax, NS B3J 3J8 Phone: (902) 444-RAIN, (902) 444-7246 Fax: 1-866-424-4267 Head Coach: Rick Lewis Home arena: Halifax MetroCentre rainmenbasketball.ca	One of three new Canadian teams in the PBL, the Halifax Rainmen are the PBL's northernmost squad, and the first team to join the league from Nova Scotia. Taking a road trip for the first weekend of the season, the Rainmen battled the Quebec Kebs hard and tight on Friday night, and at one point had a 19-point lead over their arena hosts. But the Kebs battled back, and with seconds remaining in the match, the score was tied 108-108. That's when Halifax's Brian Silverhorn hit a basket off a long rebound with 2.5 seconds remaining, giving the Rainmen a 110-108 victory. "It's definitely a better situation to be able to get the win," said Rainmen head coach Rick Lewis to the Halifax Chronicle-Herald. "They (Quebec) really fought back and battled at the defensive end. This is a game of runs, so you can't assume you're just going to win the game because you're up." The Rainmen then traveled to the Charbonneau Centre for a Saturday night matchup with the Montreal Sasquat'ch. The game turned into a very competitive affair, with both squads taking solid leads, only to have the lead whittled down. With the game going into overtime, a Rodney Mayes jumper and two Cordell Jeanty free throws helped ice the Rainmen's 127-125 win. Jeanty put together a double-double of 29 points and 10 rebounds; while Glen Dandridge (21 pts) and Jimmy Twyman (20 pts) also had strong nights for Halifax.
Manchester Millrats 816 Elm Street, PMB #182 Manchester, NH 03101 Office: 888-646-RATS (7287) Fax: 866-321-2821 Head coach: Rob Spon Home arena: Southern New Hampshire University manchestermillrats.com	The Manchester Millrats graduate to the Premier Basketball League, becoming the first team from the Granite State to participate in a PBL season. Their first road trip, however, included a Friday night heartbreaking loss to the Montreal Sasquat'ch, 100-97. Six Millrats scored in double figures, with Al Stewart's 17 points leading the way. Sam Carey and Desmond Ferguson each had 14 points, with Ferguson scoring two of his signature "Moneyball" three-pointers. The Millrats then traveled to Quebec City for a Sunday afternoon matchup with the Kebs, but instead fell 87-82 to their hosts. Ife Asinoko (14 pts) and Mario Kinsey (13 pts) were top scorers for the Rats; Asinoko also pulled down eight team-leading boards.
Mid-Michigan Destroyers 1000 Second Street Bay City, MI 48708 Phone: (989) 244-1156 Fax: (248) 393-2572 Head coach: T.J. Newsham Home arena: Bay City Western HS mmdestroyers.com	The Mid-Michigan Destroyers proudly represent Bay City, Michigan – hometown of Madonna and Eric "Butterbean" Esch. On Saturday night, the Destroyers lost a last-second contest against the Detroit Panthers, 111-109, despite 29 points from Destroyers draft pick Odgra Bobo and 18 rebounds from Luke Lloyd. Frank Gojcaj, in addition to a powerful fourth-quarter dunk, finished with a double-double of 14 points and 11 rebounds.
Montreal Sasquat'ch 775, Avenue Murray, porte 314 Québec (Québec) (Canada) G1S 4T2 Office in Quebec: (418) 527-8085 Office in Montreal: (514) 207-1996 fax: (418) 845-6782 Head coach: Alejandro Hasbani Home arena: Centre Pierre Charbonneau montrealsasquatch.com	The expansion Montreal Sasquat'ch are one of three Canadian teams joining the PBL this season. In their home opener Friday night, the Sasquat'ch battled the Manchester Millrats tooth and nail, and with the final successful free throws by Louis-Patrick Levros, the Sasquat'ch were able to give their home fans a 100-97 victory at the Charbonneau Centre. John Ruffus was top scorer for the Sasquat'ch, hitting 24 points on 11-for-14 shooting from the floor. Randall Wise had eight rebounds to augment his 21 points, while Randy Gill's 15 points included a trio of three-point completions. The Sasquat'ch didn't have much time to rest, as the Halifax Rainmen were on their way to town for a Saturday night contest. Despite a PBL season-high 38 points from Randy "White Chocolate" Gill and a 29-point, 13-rebound night by Jamaal Wise, the Sasquatch fell in overtime 127-125 to the Rainmen. Xavier Morton had four blocks to lead Montreal in that category.
Quebec Kebs 300 rue Métivier, Québec, QC G1M 3Y9 Office: 418-780-4850 Fax: 418-780-4858 Head coach: Charles Dubé-Brais Home arena: Pavillon de la Jeunesse kebsdequebec.com	Quebec City has produced several popular and memorable hockey franchises, including the AHL's Quebec Aces, the WHA/NHL's Quebec Nordiques, the IHL's Quebec Rafales, and the current Quebec Remparts of the QMJHL. The Quebec Kebs hope to continue that legacy of success – this time on the hardcourt. Despite being down by as many as 19 points in their opening-night home game against the Halifax Rainmen, the Kebs clawed their way back, chipping away at the Rainmen lead. With seconds remaining, both teams were tied at 108-108, but the Kebs were not able to convert a key rebound and lost an opening night heartbreaker 110-108. Charles Fortier was the top scorer for the Kebs, putting 25 points in the hoop. Jonas Pierre's 15 points included 8 team-leading rebounds; while Michel Yul dished out five assists with his 18 points. The Kebs next hosted the Manchester Millrats in a Sunday afternoon contest at Pavillon de la Jeunesse, and in a decisive defensive battle, the Kebs finished with an 87-82 win. Michael Anderson brought the crowd to its feet with 19 team-leading points; while Jonas Pierre put together the PBL's first triple-double of the season, with 12 points, 14 rebounds and 11 blocked shots.

Rochester Razorsharks 39 State Street, Suite 100 Rochester NY 14614 Office: (585) 232-9190 Fax: (585) 232-8086 Head Coach: Rod Baker Home Venue: Blue Cross Arena razorsharks.com	Head Coach Rod Baker returns to help Razorsharks retain their PBL championship this season. First up for the Sharks was a road game against the expansion Augusta Groove. However, despite a team-high 32 points by James "Mook" Reaves and 22 points from Sammy Monroe, the Sharks fell to the Groove 127-116, only the Sharks' third loss in two PBL seasons. Keith Friel had a trio of three-pointers with his 11 points.
Vermont Frost Heaves 4049 Williston Road South Burlington VT 05403 Phone: (802) 860-0082 Fax: (802) 860-0085 Head coach: Will Voigt Home arenas: Burlington Memorial Auditorium; Barre Municipal Auditorium vermontfrostheaves.com	The Vermont Frost Heaves join the PBL after winning the past two American Basketball Association championships. The Heaves' season opener is January 9, 2009 when they host the Montreal Sasquat'ch in Barre.
Wilmington Sea Dawgs 430 Eastwood Road, Suite 200 Wilmington NC 28403 Office: (910) 791-5523 Fax: (910) 256-4589 Head coach: Dale Kuhl Home arena: Joe and Barbara Schwartz Center, Cape Fear CC wilmingtonseadawgs.com	The Wilmington Sea Dawgs return for a second season, and hope to build upon their initial success last year. However, their first game of the season was not a success, losing on the road 98-95 to the Buffalo Stampede. Cedric McGinnis, who played for the Sea Dawgs last season, led Wilmington with 16 points and 8 rebounds; Jermaine Williams and Alex Harper each notched 14 points for the Sea Dawgs.

Game reports compiled via team press releases, and from articles appearing in newspapers from the teams' home locations.
